Subject: ICC - Lebanon Commission on Anti-corruption

Dear Sirs,
ICC – Lebanon members,

Friday, May 15, 2015

We would like to inform you that we are in the process of re-activating the commission on Anti-Corruption at ICC – Lebanon after a period of interruption.

The commission will be chaired by Mr. Fadi Saab, a recognized businessman and prominent figure in the economic sector, with huge experience in this field where he chaired and contributed in the work of many relevant associations.

The commission will highlight the new tasks that encounter fighting corruption, in addition to cooperation with other similar associations, to raise awareness about the huge cost to the economy arising from all aspects of corruption, on the private and public sector and especially on the Lebanese citizen.

This is an invitation to all interested members to join this commission, to work effectively to rise up the challenge facing this continuing threat.

Kindly indicate your interest by replying to this email, to proceed to the first meeting soonest.

Best regards,
Wajih Bizri
President
